

COMMITMENT TO ACCOMPLISHMENT

The School Committee accepts ultimate responsibility for all facets of school operations. The School Committee will maintain a program of accountability consisting of the following elements:

- Clear statements of expectations and purpose as these relate to educational programs and other areas of school operations.
- Levels of funding necessary to achieve stated expectations and purposes.
- Evaluation of instructional and staff development programs to determine how well expectations and purposes are being met.
- Specific performance objectives to enable individuals to direct their own efforts to the goals and objectives of the District.
- Evaluation of the efforts of employees in line with stated objectives, with the first purpose of evaluation being to help each individual make a maximum contribution to the goals of the District.
- Analysis of testing data and development of strategies to improve student achievement; codifying the actions to be implemented in the annual School Improvement Plans.
